

Bianca Conwell

www.biancaconwell.com

Bianca Conwell is a photographic artist based in Melbourne, Australia. She is interested in the marriage of science and art in hand crafted photography, enjoying the difference between the images she makes and the modern world surrounding us. She uses hand made emulsions and film in both large format studio and pinhole cameras, combined with alternative and historic printing methods.

Exhibitions (solo):

The Briny Deep, Gold Street Studios VIC 2023

Exhibitions (group):

The Print Exposed, Gold Street Studios VIC 2023

View Camera Australia online exhibitions, 2021-2022

Reflections and innovations, Lishui photography festival exhibition, Lishui Museum China 2021

Achievements:

Bianca's work was published in 2021 in 'Chrysotype, a contemporary guide to photographic printing in Gold' by Leanne McPhee

In 2021 Bianca was invited to be an advisor of the Lishui International Handmade Photography Centre, for the 4th international photography symposium and 2021 Lishui photography festival.